

PINK Class

December has been a busy month for Pink class - we have been preparing for Christmas by making Christmas cards ready to send out to our families, decorating our class Christmas tree, exploring toys to think about what we might like to ask Santa for on our Christmas list and dressing up and taking Christmas themed photos. We enjoyed sharing time together in class to make Christingles and singing carols in the hall with our class parents.

Father Christmas

Stroke
long beard